Dear ☐ ☐

I acknowledge receipt of your letter dated June 14th for which I am very thankful. In fact, nearly everything in it was clear for me during our first telephone conversation, but as you have told me that you are going to send it out, I was a bit worried as the letter was late. I thought perhaps that it fell in other hands, and therefore was forced to call you again and again. If I created any inconvenience by doing so, please forgive me.

I hope sincerely that I will be given an opportunity to give all that I can to our common cause in fighting our soviet enemies who deprived us our rights in our country.

Thank you for your kind interest in this matter.

Sincerely yours,

Tscherim Boobzokov
